

COOKING TO BEAT THE BAND COOKBOOK

In 1948, the Deering High School Band mothers lead by Ethel Pettengill compiled a cookbook of local recipes to raise funds for new band uniforms. Today, a current Deering High student is working on reprinting the book with old and new recipes. The reprinting will include historic local business advertisements from the 1940s.

We are accepting pre-orders of the book, which will be available on June 1, 2016.

100% of the profits go to support the Deering High Music Program which includes Band, Chorus and Handbells.
